Pseudo-code

- Pseudo-code is simply a tool
 - Translates actions to directions
- Chewing gum
 - Many steps
 - 1. Take gum out of pack
 - 2. Unwrap gum with fingers
 - 3. Take gum in fingers
 - 4. Life gum to mouth
 - 5.
 - Could go on and on
- Can be a rough draft of your program
